Updated 17.11.2025

Saturday, 13 April 1929

Opening meeting at the new track which The Motorcycle reports was not totally ready with inadequate watering facilities and a lack of moisture in the track despite the snow of the previous day. None of the riders had seen the track before and there had been no practice facilities available.

Promoters Fred Mockford and Cecil Smith were, however, commended for running the 17-event programme in good time.

5. Lloyd, Spencer, Pointer,		4	3	20	16
6. Dallison, Reid, Bird, Parsons		6	1	26	17

The dead heat between Burton and Parsons in heat 3 gave rise to some uncertainty about the scoring. Some sources gave 1 1/2 points to each rider and tables were drawn up to reflect this. Later the half point disappeared from the tables. It seems that a decision was taken to award both riders 2 points.
