Final:

At the conclusion of the league match, the Wembley manager, Alec Jackson, withdrew all his riders from the second half in protest against the poor condition of the Harringay track, which recently had been experiencing severe drainage problems. The SCB held an enquiry on 01.10, at which the seven Wembley riders were each fined £10, and Jackson was fined £25. The track was deemed fit to ride on the night, but had not been maintained correctly, and must be improved before a track licence is issued for 1937.
