NOTE: (1) Under the league scoring system, Belle Vue gained 3 points and Swindon received 0; (2) Maciej Janowski and Scott Nicholls were stuck in heavy traffic on their way to Manchester, so the start of the meeting was put back to 8.00 p.m. but, whilst the Swindon No. 4 did make it to Kirkmanshulme Lane, their No. 1 rider failed to arrive; (3) Meanwhile, Simon Stead arrived at the track with bruised ribs and wasn't permitted to ride by the track doctor. The Robins' management had intended to utilise Rider Replacement for Grzegorz Zengota but instead were forced to use the facility for Stead, whilst bringing in Wright as a guest for the injured Pole in the No. 2 slot; (4) Although he didn't ride, Stead still filled the role of captain.

Topinka is in the main declaration as he has the highest CMA. He's not there, so you can use the other 'double-upper', Risager, but he's not there either so, technically, you are getting the facility for Risager."

NOTE: (1) Under the league scoring system, Swindon gained 2 points and Poole received 1; (2) The meeting ended bizarrely when firstly Scott Nicholls fell in heat fifteen and was excluded. Nicolai Klindt then exceeded the 2-minute time allowance and was penalised in the re-run. It was announced that he would go from a 15-metre handicap, but then Gathercole appeared as his replacement. It was assumed that he should have started from the gate but - amid chaotic scenes - he went from a 15-metre handicap, with the referee seemingly oblivious as he started the race and permitted it to continue to its conclusion.

NOTE: This was Swindon's second worst home loss of all-time in an official match, their 34-point margin of defeat only surpassed by Oxford's 35-point margin of success in a 56-21 win at the Abbey in a British League encounter on 11 October 1986. When expanding that to challenge matches, the Robins lost by a whopping 43-point margin when going down 63-20 to Plymouth on 27 August 1949. And, on 1 October 1955, they lost by a 38-point margin when Wembley claimed a 67-29 success.
