In heat 2 Norman Parker's bike reared up severely out of the gate. Norman had to slide off the back to prevent it from turning over. Norman aggravated an injury he got in the Wembley leg and was far from his usual self afterwards.

Phil Bishop's fall in heat 7 was a disaster for Harringay. Phil was on good form and had won his first race. Phil went down in front of Byers who skilfully avoided him. Charlie Blacklock, possibly unsighted, hit Phil hard. Blacklock was pitched clean over the handlebars and was lucky not to be hurt. Bishop was carried off with chest and rib injuries. This affected the Harringay team who seemed to lose heart.
