Kilmister and Lees returned from injury. It was Ginger's first appearance of the season at Wembley and he had recovered from a broken leg. There was some way to go to regain full fitness and confidence however. He took 2 rides only from reserve. Kilmister was OK and won his first ride brilliantly beating off a persistent challenge from Jack Ormston right to the line.

The first half was hard fought as Harringay protected their big lead from the first leg. The Tigers rather took things easy in the second half to clinch the London Cup for 1935. Bluey Wilkinson's retirement in heat 3 was caused by a heavy "filling in" move by Jack Ormston. Dallison was leading the original heat 8 when Norman Parker, Stevenson and Atkinson crashed. Stan Dell and Phil Bishop crashed in the first run of heat 18.
