The first run of heat 7 was remarkable. Chitty lost control when coming in across the other riders. His handlebars caught under Eric Langton's arm. If Langton had let go the crash would have been terrible and he managed to hang on keeping both riders upright. The weight eventually dislocated Eric's arm and Chitty and his bike fell away without injury. The medics got Eric's arm back in place and incredibly he took his place in the rerun.

A dreadful first league match for a hopeful young Australian called Vic Duggan!

Vic caught his foot on the inside barrier on the first bend first lap and went a purler. He brought down Case and Stevenson. Vic did it again in his next ride, heat 7 this time taking out Arthur Atkinson. How things were to change!

Improving at a great rate Vic Duggan was becoming a real asset to Hackney. He fought a great battle with Chitty and Croombs in heat 14 to take the race after losing the lead twice.

Doug Wells, a Dagenham discovery was also looking a good prospect.

Heat 14 was rerun due to an unsatisfactory start, an unusual occurrence in 1937.

Dick Case and Stan Dell were absent riding in the official Coronation Cup Best Pairs at Belle Vue. This weakened the Hackney team considerably and caused a lot of criticism about the SCB's organisation of the Coronation Cup events. Hackney borrowed Frank Hodgson and Sam Marsland from Nottingham.

Bluey Wilkinson did one of his special passing moves under Les Wotton for the lead in heat 6. It really was a small gap and by the time Les had sorted himself out, almost in the fence, Dixon came by as well.

Wembley's last chance to win the 1937 Title. They made a great fight of it in a very exciting match but lost out by 2 points. Les Wotton played a major role. He defeated Ginger Lees with a very tight passing move in heat 5. He then outgated and left the fast starting Van Praag in heat 9. Van did catch up but Les anticipated all his efforts to get by. Les simply left them for dead in heat 14 and was chaired around the track for his great night's work

Frank Varey got lost on his way to London and did not arrive.

Les Wotton continued his great form. He passed Eric Langton on the inside after making a couple of big efforts around the outside in heat 9. The track was rain soaked and not much passing took place, making Wotton's achievement all the greater. He also won both his races in the second half and put in the fastest 3 times of the night.

1937 was the first season in which reserves had programmed rides.
This good opening home win over New Cross restored the Lions confidence after a bad start to the season. Unusually they had lost 4 of their previous 5 away matches including an amazing 16/68 thrashing at West Ham.

A cracking encounter this with good racing to match the close score. Bill Clibbett had a convincing lead in the last heat decider with a lap and a half to go. Then his chain snapped robbing the Wolves of a valuable away point.

Case looked his old self in heat 1 with a brilliant round the boards win over Van Praag.

Case came in every time Van Praag had the chance to go under him.

Stan Greatrex fell heavily which explains his unusually low score.

Jack Milne was very fussy about his bikes constantly returning for adjustments after lining up at the tapes. The crowd got fed up and chanted rhymes that were not complimentary!!

It would be hard to argue with his method though as he delivered a faultless maximum.

Wembley's stronger teamwork won this one.

Another good match at the Empire Stadium with some unusual happenings. In heat 3 Bluey Wilkinson came last. He didn't fall or have bike trouble he was incredibly just plain last. The very experienced pairing of Ginger Lees and wily old Gus Kuhn made a hash of heat 12. Both being white liners they got in each others way consistently to lose 5/1 and let the Hammers back to within 4 points.

Kilmister and Pymar staged an unsatisfactory start to heat 5 and the riders were called back. Wimbledon had not secured a single point in the League home or away. This fixture held one week after the pulsating World Championsip Final did not pull in much of a crowd. At one point the Lions were racing each other for fun, things were so one sided.

Eric Langton led Van Praag for a lap and a half in heat 1. Praag swept past down the back straight and that was the last the Aces saw of him all night. Belle Vue no longer had any chance of the League Title for the first time since 1932. Wembley were still in with a shout at this stage but West Ham were very much in command. In the second half a new junior with Provincial League experience was showing up very well - Malcolm Craven.

Harringay had a difficult time of it. They had 4 riders retire with engine failure and 3 fallers. This attracted the sympathy of the usually partisan Wembley crowd and they actually cheered the Tigers efforts to put on a show. Typical was Ormston's fall in heat 6. He had been struggling in a tough battle with Ginger Lees. Just as Jack was passing him Ginger had a big overslide and Jack came down. The next time out Wembley fans gave Jack a good ovation.

A rare roasting for Wembley. Only Ginger Lees and Tommy Price saved them from a whitewash but Phil Bishop was ahead of them both when he fell in heat 8 at the end of lap 2. The absent Frank Charles could not have prevented a drubbing on this occasion.

In heat 8 Phil Bishop struggled home, dragging along a bike with a locked back wheel. He had to stop sometimes for a short rest but was determined to get a point. It was too much and with the front wheel just over the line Phil collapsed. He came to, and found that he had been excluded under the time limit.

Wal Morton was the only bright spot in a thrashing for the Dons. Wal was Wimbledon's only heat winner and put up the fastest time of the match. The normally reliable high scorer Wilbur Lamoreaux had a disastrous night with his bikes. Wilbur didn't complete the first lap in 3 of his rides.

The Jack Milne, Bluey Wilkinson clash in heat 5 was a stormer. Into the last bend they were dead level and the speed was something special. Milne went just a shade wide and as ever that was all Bluey needed. He came through the gap taking it on the line by a tyre width. The track record was beaten as well. In heat 10 George Newton blasted right around the outside of Stevenson and Croombs to pass them both on the last bend. Take no notice of the score. This was a great speedway match.

In the original start of heat 1 Stevenson reared up at the gate. He brought the bike under control only to be knocked flying by Hargreaves who was also struggling for control out of the gate. Phil Bishop was carried off in heat 10. He crashed into Croombs' bike after Tommy had come off. Ernie Price cut onto the centre green to avoid them, sending the rakers running in all directions. This narrow victory in a hard fought match secured the Hammers the league title

In heat 2 Kilmister fell before the first bend. He jumped back on but was way behind.

However McKinney bashed into Rye and came off. Rye was OK at that point but he came down later when challenging Lees. Claude scrambled back on but it was too late as Kilmister had gone by for a Wembley 5/1.

This was a black day for Speedway. A terrible crash in heat 2 claimed the life of Roy Clarence Vigor. Popularly known as Reg, Vigor died on 30 September 1937. He was just 22 and showed great promise.

Byrd McKinney had an incredible escape in the final heat. He fell right in front of Clem Mitchell who had nowhere to go and ran over him. Amazingly after a delay they came out for the rerun and Mckinney won it!!

Reports of the time suggest that Jack Ormston was a bit of a cunning fox at the gate. It was not uncommon for another rider to get excluded for breaking the tapes. Wilbur Lamoreaux fell victim in heat 10. Harry Shepherd lined up alone against Ormston and Goulden and they beat Harry out of the start. Harry gave them a tough time and got by Goulden on lap 3. Harry kept the pressure on Jack Ormston and as they raced for the line Jack's engine blew. An unexpected and well deserved win for Harry Shepherd.
