Apart from Parker and Ormston all the Harringay riders had at least 1 fall. Statham had 3.

Joe Francis caused Harringay some grief. He overslid in heat 12 and went down. Statham ran into his back wheel and Wotton laid his bike down.

Joe got back on for 2 points. Joe did it again in heat 15 and Dick Smythe laid down in avoidance.

Joe stayed on but Dick broke his little finger.

Joe Francis attempted a very forceful inside pass on Jack Parker in heat 7 bringing him down. Jack's knee was badly bruised and he was out of the match. Harringay's task was very difficult with Jack. Without him they had no chance.

Joe was disqualified.

Clem Mitchell's defeat of Jack Milne in heat 17 was a sensation. Clem was inconsistent and Jack Milne was undefeated over his last 35 rides for New Cross. Jack's starting was also brilliant. Mitchell beat him out of the gate and Milne never got near him.

Saints came so close to a Cup upset in a great match. Dallison and Griffiths had commanding leads in heats 5 and 6 when they had bad luck. Dallison fell and Griffiths blew a tyre. If they had held their positions Wembley would have been out of the National Trophy as the Saints did not have to ride away in this round.

As in the London Cup New Cross proved too strong and The Lions lost both legs to miss out on the Final.

In heat 8 Newton came from last to second and was all over Van Praag for the lead. He then had a big overslide and finished up right on the inner edge, rear wheel spinning furiously. Somehow he stayed on and recovered second place.

40,000 fans turned out to watch Belle Vue embark on their 6th successive National Trophy Final.
A very disappointing first leg by New Cross virtually guaranteed the Aces a 5th successive triumph.

When Joe Francis fell in heat 4 Bob Harrison struck his bike but stayed on. Bob was very slow after that and remarkably Joe Francis got back on and passed him on the run in to the finish. Heat 5 was rerun after a massive pile up involving Newton, Abbott and Johnson. It was surprising that all three were fit for the rerun.

Bob Harrison broke his leg in a collision with Clem Mitchell in the first run of heat10. The injury to Harrison put him out of the World Championship Final. Frank Varey dislocated his shoulder in heat 17.
