Norwich were not expected to make good the severe deficit they incurred at Southampton. They did remarkably well to secure a replay.

A great match, every bit as exciting as the see-saw score suggests.

The Hackney lads were fast out of the gate and once in front did some superb team riding.

Hylands well earned and unexpected victory over Hodgson in heat 12 seemed to inspire the Birmingham boys and proved a turning point.

Confidence grew in the home camp and Hodgson was once again held. This time by Lovell in a dead heat.

Seven points behind with five heats to go Birmingham came back with four 5-1 results out of the five to take an eight point victory.

Match restricted to 9 heats only.

Preceding this match Wembley met New Cross in a National league Div 1 encounter.

Giant killers Norwich had put the Harringay Tigers out of the Cup. Home and away against Wembley though was a bit too much for the great Max Grosskreutz and his boys.
